During these seventeen years since Desiring God first appeared, I have been testing it and applying its vision in connection with more of life and ministry and God. The more I do so, the more persuaded I become that it will bear all the weight I can put on it.¹ The more I reflect and the more I minister and the more I live, the more all-encompassing the vision of God and life in this book ...

Tested by Fire.00-End - Desiring God

All God's good gifts are loving to the degree that they lead us to God himself. This is the love of God: doing everything necessary, most painfully in the death of his Son, to enthrall us with what is most deeply and durably satisfying—namely, himself.
